

© 2007 Janet Stevens

Eastview Library Link

A Special Article from the Library

We're springing into April in the library. It's also National Poetry Month. Pick out a good poetry book from the list below to share with your family in the next few weeks. Poems offer the flexibility needed for our often busy lives. You can read as many or as few as you have time for. Rhyming poems help reluctant readers enjoy the magic and fun of words.

We totally enjoyed the visit last month by Alan St. Jean. All of his books are available for check out at our library.

Recommended poetry reading:

- Something Big Has Been Here by Jack Prelutsky;
- Casey at Bat by Ernest Lawrence Thayer;
- Mirror, Mirror—A Book of Reversible Verse by Marilyn Singer;
- Guacamole by Jorge Argueta;
- A Light in the Attic by Shel Silverstein;
- Laughing Tomatoes and Other Spring Poems by Francisco Alarcon.

Quarter 4 Accelerated Readers:

This last quarter of the year can prove challenging for students. AR reading time is provided daily in school but can often be supplemented at home especially on weekends. Keep track of what your child is reading by looking at their reading logs and Accelerated Reader TOPS (The Opportunity to Praise) report from each quiz taken. You can also view your child's progress on Home Connect on our Eastview Library homepage.

With spring in our reading,
Ms. Fesenmaier